

WE AND JOHNNY REBS GUESTS HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO LOCAL CHARITIES

Since 1996, guests have shelled out several hundred thousands of dollars in pocket change for local charities.

It all started as my husband and I were sittin' on our porch one day sippin' iced tea. Larry alluded as to how we were giving away 36,000 pounds of peanuts each year... and maybe our guests would get so excited about this generosity (in as much as a bag of peanuts cost $10 at the ball game) that they would want to share in our insanity.

So we decided to ask you if you would donate a quarter, or just any ol' pocket change, while you eat all the peanuts your heart desires. Of course even if you don't choose to make the donation, we insist you eat all the peanuts anyhow. It helps drive-up the price of peanut stock, and you know we Carter's love that.

Most Recent campaigns:

- Xela-Aid, self Reliance brings education to all ages as well as clean water and medical help in Guatemala.
- Pathways, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing care giving for the -elderly, hospice care for patients dealing with life-limiting illnesses, and grief support and counseling.
- Send a Kid to Camp, allowing children without means to experience the fun of camping
- Agape Children's Museum, a learning facility that believes in the beauty and necessity of creativity within young ones.

Companies have donated money, personal checks have been written, and many heroes have emerged. Your generosity has overwhelmed us and inspired us to continue.
